Terms & Conditions

1. The Court of Master Sommeliers was established in 1977 to promote excellence in hotel and restaurant beverage services. The intensive education and examination programme guides aspiring Masters through four increasingly rigorous levels of coursework and examinations, culminating in the Master Sommelier Diploma Examination.

2. Enrolment is open to any persons who are 18 years or over.
To apply for enrolment in the Introductory, Certified, Advanced, or Master Sommelier exams, candidates should complete an application form which can be found against the appropriate course or examination on our website: www.courtofmastersommeliers.org
All information concerning course fees & qualifications including the application forms can be found here.

3. Enrolment into the Certified Sommelier examination is only offered to applicants who have successfully completed the Introductory qualification.
Entry to the Advanced course and examination is limited to those persons who have successfully passed the Certified Sommelier Examination.
Applicants for the Master Sommelier Diploma must have successfully passed the CMS Advanced Certificate.
CMSEu reserves the right to request the verification of age, identity, residential address and qualifications of applicants and any other information relevant to entry and participation in a CMSEu course.

4. The CMSEu will accept for Enrolment eligible applicants for each course or examination offered. In its sole discretion, the CMSEu may increase or reduce the maximum number of applicants accepted for any course or examination offered, or refuse applicants and refund applicants according to clause 9 of these terms and conditions.

5. It is a requirement that all candidates have an appropriate amount of Service experience within the Hospitality industry working with Wine and Beverages. Experience will be determined on an individual basis depending on the candidate.

6. CMSEu will select for enrolment, eligible applicants for each of the Certified examinations offered. Eligibility for enrolment into a Certified examination is at the sole discretion of the CMSEu, but CMSEu will consider applicants who have previously successfully completed an Introductory examination and/or the top qualifying candidates from the Introductory examination conducted immediately before the Certified examination.

In its sole discretion, CMSEu may increase or decrease the maximum number of applicants according to clause 9 of these terms & conditions.

CMSEu will not be responsible for late, lost or misdirected applications or other communications written or electronic.

7 CMSEu reserves the right in their absolute discretion to reject applications for enrolment if the applicants do not meet the eligibility criteria or for any other reason as determined by CMSEu in its sole discretion, including but not limited to, submission of untruthful content during the application process.

8 Applicants may enrol in offered education programmes worldwide subject to places being available at the time of the enquiry.

An enquiry may constitute intent to participate, but the CMSEu has the discretion to confirm the places only to persons who have paid the full fee or a non-returnable deposit.

Eligible candidates who apply for the Master Sommelier Diploma, must once be accepted on the programme remain with the accepting organisation (CMSEu or CMSAmericas) Transfer of places between Europe and America is not permitted.

Any candidate who for any reason requires to relocate from Europe to America or vice versa must make a written application to the CMSEu or CMSA for consideration, stating the reasons for such change. The CMSEu & CMSA have absolute discretion to grant or deny the request.

9 The CMSEu reserves the right to cancel any course or examination if insufficient applications for enrolment are received. In the event that the CMSEu must cancel any course or examination, it will give applicants a minimum of 21 days’ notice prior to the scheduled commencement of the course in which the applicant is enrolled.

Applicants will then be entitled to receive a full refund according to Clause 9 of these terms and conditions.

10 If an applicant cancels enrolment up to 90 days prior to the commencement of the course, the applicant will incur the loss of 50% of the full course fee.

Any cancellations received within 89 days of the scheduled start date of the course or examination in which the applicant is enrolled will incur a 100% cancellation fee.

In the event that CMSEu cancels a scheduled course or examination or declines an application into any one or all examinations for which the applicant has applied for enrolment, the applicant will receive a full refund.

Any refunds made according to this clause will be credited to the applicant.

11 Applicants who are accepted on a course or examination will be assessed and examined throughout the course by the nominated CMSEu assessors. The CMSEu assessors will ultimately determine whether or not an applicant has successfully completed an examination in which the candidate is enrolled. In assessing and exercising their judgment, the CMSEu assessors will be guided by the assessment criteria set out on the CMSEu website. www.courtofmastersommeliers.org

12 CMSEu or any related body, shall not be liable for any loss, damage or injury suffered (even if caused by negligence) as a result of individuals enrolling and participating in any CMSEu examination, except for any liability that cannot be excluded by law.
